Highway Patrolmen To Enforce Law As To Plates

Next Monday night is the dead line on payment of automobile licenses for 1935.

Many car owners have been paying their licenses this week, but a majority of automobile owners in the county have yet to provide themselves with the necessary plate in order to use their cars after next Monday.

A big business is expected in auto plates at the office of Tax Collector R. N. Barnett Friday, Saturday and Monday.

Highway patrolmen have been notified by state officials that cars must not operate on the highways after midnight of April 1st unless properly tagged with the new 1935 plates.

Practically half of the auto owners in Randall county have so far neglected buying the 1935 plates, so that a big rush must be made on the collector's office if all cars owned by Randall county people are to be used during the coming twelve months. According to a change in the law by the present session of the legislature, automobile plates will not be placed on sale for 1936 before the first of March, but all cars must be provided with plates by midnight of April 1st each year.

Car owners are reminded by Tax Collector Barnett that if they registered their car in another county last year, they must bring their receipt for 1934. Those who registered in Randall county should either bring their receipt, or know the number on their license plate.

House Committee
Recommends More
Money for W. T.

The House Appropriations committee reported the bill for the coming two years Saturday, in which W. T. was given an increase of 12.5% for the first year and 14% increase for the second year. The total for the first year in the bill is $152,689, and for the second year $155,689.

The committee voted a lump sum for all state educational institutions. A resolution was passed in the House Monday directing that the committee itemize the bill as has been the custom in the past.

Baptist Convention to Bring 500 Delegates

Program For Tuesday-
Wednesday of Next Week

500 delegates from Panhandle Baptist Churches are expected in Canyon next Tuesday and Wednesday for the B. T. U. and Sunday School convention of the Fifth District.

The program will be directed by Rev. M. F. Ewton, Sunday School President; J. D. Riddle, B. T. U. president; Mrs. A. T. Cocanough, Secretary.

The first session will start Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock, and the convention will continue until Wednesday noon.

Thanks to Those Assisting

Friday afternoon the Twelfth Annual Conference of District Number Eight, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers was brought to a very successful close with 403 registered delegates and many visitors in attendance.

Many lovely social fetes marked the entertainment of the delegates and visitors while they were here, making the conference one of the most successful and enjoyable held over a number of years.

The officers and members of the Parent-Teacher Association of Canyon wish to extend their most hearty thanks and appreciation to the citizenship of Canyon and surrounding territory for their splendid co-operation and hospitality throughout the three day meeting.

Those individuals, business firms, clubs and committees to whom many thanks are given are the ministers of the churches for assistance in the programs; the Methodist people for the use of their church; ladies of the churches for serving the lovely luncheons; ladies of P. T. A. for serving banquet; efficient service of Mr. Bond; pages, ushers, boy and girl Scouts for assisting; girls of Canyon High for serving; Randall Hall girls in luncheon; W. All the citizens of Canyon have been invited by Rev. J. R. Hicks to assist in the entertainment of the delegates while in the city. Several entertainment features are being planned for the benefit of the visitors.

Mrs. Chas. Stratton returned Thursday from Temple where she attended the Rebekah Assembly which met there the 18-20. The Assembly will be held in San Angelo next year.

County Agent Makes a Statement Regarding Work

Running Lines To Hold Moisture For The Crops

The following statement was issued yesterday by County Agent W. H. Upchurch regarding the contour work which will start in Randall county next week:

The soils of the Texas Panhandle have a potential come-back not exceeded by the soil for an area of equal size anywhere on earth. Our outlook may be bad indeed during the winter and spring months and yet when rain comes later in the season good crops are seen on every hand.

Our soil is being damaged in spots all over the Panhandle by wind erosion. In many cases it is next to impossible to stop soils drifting until moisture comes. In other cases it is comparatively easy to stop the soil drifting by furrowing. This is especially true if there is any subsoil moisture.

The one thing that can be done to greatly improve our conditions and make erosion control much easier is the better use of the rainfall that we get. This is accomplished by the simple process of level working the land. I mean by this that the land should be contoured, worked on the level, following the exact contour with all farming operations. In this way rainfall moisture is held exactly where it falls. Lister furrows run on a level will hold a heavy rain without runoff. Sloping land that is bare and in blowing condition does not hold the rainfall. A big percentage runs off and the soil is still left without subsoil moisture.

Feed crops on level rows have at least fifty percent better chance to make a good yield. Most, if not all, soil blowing can be controlled when there is sufficient moisture in the subsoil to insure a crop. We cannot increase rainfall but we (Continued on last page)

225 Books Added
To Library Since
First of January

The Randall County Library has been increased by 225 new books since the first of January when the library was turned over to the new committee representing the county, the city and two women's clubs. There are now 2141 volumes in the library.

A new 14-foot shelf was added to the library facilities Tuesday to care for the new books which are being added. With the money in sight for the balance of the year it is likely that about 1200 more new books will be added to the library during the year. 92 new books were placed on the shelves last week, and 37 more are now ready for the readers.

The number of readers is increasing at the library much faster than the new books may be purchased owing to the limited means.

Topping Contract Will Be Let Friday at Austin

Contract for the topping of Goodnight Trail will be let Friday at Austin, according to the call made for bids last week.

The Randall county letting is near the top of the list and will probably be reached before noon, unless the order is changed to the alphabetical standing of counties. A number of contractors in this section have inspected the highway during the past week with a view of making bids. It will take about three weeks after the letting of the contract for actual construction to start according to highway department engineers.

More Money Needed To Complete Equipment Needed

A new well has been drilled at the Dreamland Cemetery under the direction of the women who are raising funds for this improvement.

Not all of the necessary $350 has been paid into the fund, but it is hoped that by the time the windmill is up and the tank placed, the funds will be provided. The call is made for those who have not yet subscribed to do so at once.

The next meeting of the committee in charge of the work will be held April 6th, at which time it is hoped that sufficient funds will be completed to do the work.

Shrubbery was taken to the cemetery Saturday and Monday. A large number of lilacs were secured from the citizens of Canyon, and have been set out in the cemetery.

Mrs. A. Cayton Died Sunday at the Family Home

Mrs. A. Cayton, 65, died Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the family home on Third Avenue, following an illness of several weeks. The funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the Methodist church, conducted by Rev. J. O. Quattlebaum. Interment followed in Dreamland Cemetery.

Pall bearers were G. G. Foster, J. W. Shook, A. W. Sternberg, J. M. Craig, W. H. Stroud and M. H. Rockwell.

Mrs. Maude Webb Cayton was born at LaGrange, Texas, June 15, 1869. The family moved west, living at several places. In Wichita Falls she taught in the public schools for seven years, setting a record by never missing a day.

On September 18, 1904 she was married to Mr. Cayton, and they moved to their farm near Claude where they lived until coming to Canyon. During the pioneer days she cheerfully endured the hardships, and sacrificed for the benefit of her family, her friends and the Methodist Church, which she had joined at the age of 17 years.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two sons, Leland Cayton and Irvine Cayton, both of Canyon; three daughters, Mrs. B. W. Derrick of Denver; Mrs. M. G. Hunt, of Portales; Miss Leta Cayton of Canyon; one brother, L. P. Webb of Wichita Falls; and one niece, Mrs. D. C. Walker of Wichita Falls.

Two Names Filed For Places Board of School Trustees

Tuesday was the final day for filing for places on the ticket for the school trustees election to be held April 6th. Only two names were filed with Secretary Andy Walsh for the places to be filled.

The term of office of W. H. Stroud and J. H. Lisle expires this year, and at the request of members of the board of trustees, these two filed for places on the tickets. No other names were proposed.

Half Inch Rain Is Followed by Duster

Large Part of the County
Receives Good Rain
Saturday

A large part of Randall county received a good rain Saturday afternoon. In Canyon the moisture amounted to .53 of an inch. Two sections of the county are reported to have been entirely missed by the rain, one being about four miles west of Canyon, and the other about five miles northeast of Canyon. Practically every other section received a half inch or more in the downpour.

The rain had followed three weeks of almost continuous wind, which had kept the atmosphere filled with dust a greater part of the time. Perfect spring weather followed the rain for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Wednesday morning at 2:00 o'clock a high wind from the north hit the city heavily laden with dust. It was one of the heaviest dust storms of the spring, being swept from the north over the section of the Western states which has been in the drouth territory for several years.

Cooler weather prevailed yesterday and last night.

No particular damage was done by the duster of yesterday as the wind was high for only a short while, but the inconvenience and unpleasantness of dust was most distasteful to the people of the Panhandle.

Entered at the postoffice at Canyon, Texas, as second class matter. Published weekly at office, 1513 Fourth Avenue, Canyon, Texas.

Every President since the close of the World War has opposed the immediate payment of the bonus due the ex-service men. Many of the men need this money very badly at this time, and could use it to the very best advantage. But every President who has had to veto the payment of the bonus has gone so because he believed it would be against the best interest of the nation; because he was convinced that the immediate payment was against the best interest of the greater part of the ex-service men; because he realized that as soon as the bonus is paid there will be started the movement to provide pensions for a large part of the four million ex-service men. All of these facts have been considered most seriously by the presidents who have been forced to veto the bonus payment, regardless of the individual feelings towards those who served during the war. With these facts in mind, ex-service men cannot feel hard against President Roosevelt if he is again called upon to veto the bill which he believes to be wrong for the welfare of the majority of the nation.

President Roosevelt is opposed to more inflation. Our dollars are said to be worth only about 59 cents at the present time. Yet there is a demand to turn the printing presses loose and flood the nation with more paper money. Very few people pretend to know anything about money, what governs its value, and how it should be handled. Those who think they know usually have some impractical pet theory which would bankrupt the nation if put into practice. But let it be known, nations have tried to experiment by printing more and more money. In Germany it took a bale of money to buy anything during the period of inflation. This country does not wish to see such a thing happen. The only way to tell the value of money is to determine what it will buy. When money will buy little or nothing, the nation is getting in a mighty bad way. To increase the amount of this kind of money is benefitting no one.

Hundreds of visitors in Canyon last week expressed the highest praise of Canyon as an interesting place in which to meet. Many expressed the opinion that perhaps many Canyon citizens do not wholly appreciate the advantages in living in a town like Canyon. W. T. is always an outstanding point of interest for those who come here either on business or for a convention. The Museum creates a desire to return for a closer study of the thousands of interesting items shown in the display cases. The Palo Duro Canyon with the State Park comes next in interest as visitors seek a place for outdoor recreation. The cleanliness and beauty of the town appeals to all visitors. Citizens of Canyon should appreciate more the advantages of living in this town, and strive to make it a better place in which to live.

When three thousand teachers from Panhandle schools came to Canyon for the educational conference, several hundreds of them

CONTRACTORS NOTICE OF TEXAS HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

For the classification of particular positions under the above types of Laborers, Workmen, or Mechanics, see the Approved Required Special Provisions.

The above prevailing minimum wage rates shall govern on this contract. Overtime and legal holiday work shall be paid for at the regular governing rates.

A certificate of Code compliance on the prescribed form which will be furnished for that purpose shall be signed and submitted by all bidders, in accordance with Executive Order No. 6646, issued by the President on March 14, 1934. Only bids accompanied by such certificate shall be considered or accepted. The contractor to whom award is made shall require subcontractors and dealers furnishing equipment, materials, and supplies to sign similar certificates before making awards or to purchases from such subcontractors or dealers, copies of which shall be furnished to the contracting officer.

A local employment agency from which the Contractor shall obtain employment list will be designated prior to the award of contract. Plans and specifications available at the office of W. J. Van London, Division Engineer, Amarillo, Texas, and State Highway Department, Austin. Usual rights reserved.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

It's a Tough Chore for Any Clouter, but in George Selkirk Yanks Believe They Have Possible Ruth Substitute

BY PHILIP MARTIN

TIME heals all things, and the Yanks may become reconciled to the loss of their biggest box office attraction, Babe Ruth.

There will be occasions, of course, with men on the bricks and the score tied closer than a Scotchman's wallet, when thoughts of what might have been will torture Manager Joe McCarthy. For even with his aged underpins, the Bambino could be counted on to clout the apple.

True, he might loft one a mile high for an out; but then again he'd be just as likely to lambast the hide off the apple for the circuit.

But there's a more pleasant side to the picture. Dr. Time may be aided in its healing by one George Selkirk, who hails from the Yanks' Newark farm. A very clubby young fellow, Selkirk's yeoman stickwork may remove much of the sting left by Ruth's departure.

We're not saying he can replace Babe, but we do believe he'll make a valiant effort. And just to show why we arrived at that opinion:

Last year, against fast International League hurling, George hung up a swat mark of 355. Recalled by the Yanks later in the season, he took part in 46 ball games, batted .313 and fielded .989.

He's a right-handed thrower and a southpaw batter. He now gives Palmyra, N. Y., as his winter address, though he originally hailed from Huntsville, Ont.

HAZARDING a guess on a hazardous race, the Grand National Steeplechase at Aintree, Eng., will place a few shillings on Golden Miller, last year's victor. In winning, the Miller set a new record of 9:20.4 for the grueling event. And "grueling" is a mild word.

Thirty-one of the most difficult jumps and water holes ever con-discovered that the work being discussed in the curriculum reform was now in practice in the Canyon public schools. A display of the work was made at the school on Tuesday night of last week and witnessed by several hundred people. Two exhibits were moved to the Methodist church and shown during the P. T. A. convention, attracting scores of mothers interested in this work. Several hundred teachers were directed to the church Friday and Saturday to see the work which was being done in the school. The praise given by the visitors for the advanced work being done in the Canyon schools is highly appreciated, but is entirely merited.

Ex-President Herbert Hoover makes another attempt to revive the Republican party. His bid for leadership next year when a feeble effort will be made to oust President Roosevelt. The nation has a pretty good memory of the complete failure of the Hoover administration to perform any program worth while for the benefit of the nation. While President Roosevelt has probably overstepped the bounds of reason in his attempt to restore prosperity in this nation, yet his fearlessness in making these attempts will be largely approved in 1936 by the voters who believe that a few gross errors are better than no effort.

Canyon folks have thought many times about building a good hotel, but nothing was ever accomplished. We have been passing through a period of distress when even big hotels in large cities have been ceived by the hand of man be devil horses and jockeys over this 4 1/2-mile course, forcing out most of the numerous starters before the final hurdle is reached. Golden Miller will carry 175 pounds, but in our opinion he still has enough stamina to beat out the rest of the field, three of the best of which he defeated at Sandown Park on Feb. 10.

in financial difficulties, so that the average citizen shrinks from the idea of investing in hotel property. One of these days Canyon must build a modern hotel. The town has lost much business by not having proper housing facilities for taking care of people. Probably we shall have to wait another year or two before a hotel would be profitable, but this should be one of the first public buildings undertaken in Canyon.

The race horse gamblers are pretty smart after all. In making this sort of gambling legal two years ago, the provision was made in the law to distribute this money to all counties in the state. This leaves the impression that gambling is profitable to all citizens since each county realizes a little benefit. Of course there is no way to check up how much money is taken out of each county by the gamblers, usually from people who cannot afford to lost the money.

Last Thursday was the official opening of spring, and the way things have greened up since the rain of Saturday leads the most pessimistic to believe that spring has really come. But even a big wet snow would be appreciated from the standpoint of moisture.

The rain of Saturday beat any sand storm the Panhandle has ever had.

FORD V-8

In A Class By Itself

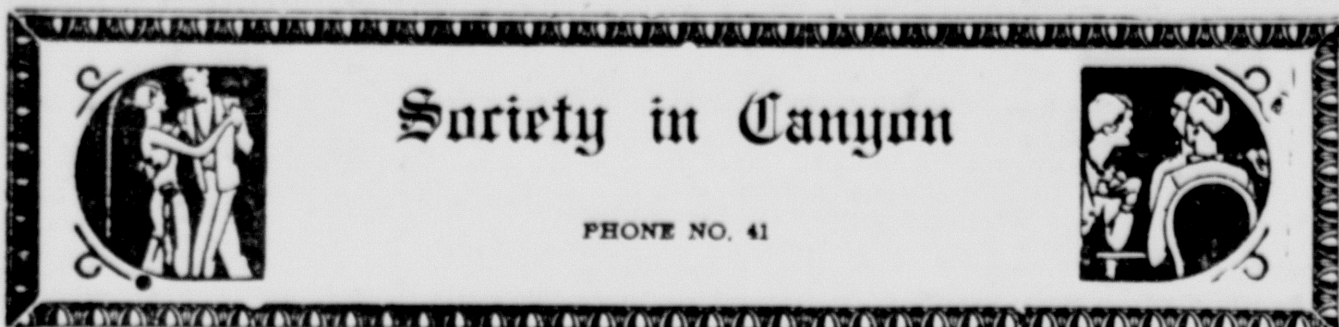

THERE is no way to compare the Ford V-8 with any other car because there is no other car like it.

The Ford enables you to step up into the fine-car class in performance, beauty, comfort and safety. But there is no stepping up in price. That is kept down by Ford low-profit policies and unique manufacturing methods. These are as different as the car itself.

It takes eight cylinders to give the modern performance you need these days. The Ford is powered by a V-8 — the finest type of eight-cylinder engine. You have to pay more than $2000 for that in any other car.

VISITORS FOR DISTRICT P. T. A. CONFERENCE HONORED

Some of the most elaborate social functions of the year were given last week when delegates and visitors attending the Twelfth Annual Spring Conference of the District No. 8, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers were honored.

The Woman's Book Club and the Junior Woman's Club entertained with a tea Thursday afternoon in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum.

Silver and white were the decorations used, with tulips as the decorative flowers.

In the receiving line were: Mrs. Ray Campbell, Mrs. A. W. Sternberg, Mrs. W. E. Miller and the officers of the Eighth District: Mrs. J. E. Griggs, Amarillo, president; Mrs. W. B. LaMaster of Perryton; Mrs. Claude Lard of Pampa; Mrs. J. R. McReynolds of Dumas; Mrs. T. H. McKenzie of Panhandle; Mrs. J. T. Shelton of Vega and Mrs. J. A. Blackwell of Friona, all vice presidents; Mrs. Tom Johnson of Tulla, corresponding secretary; and three state officers, Mrs. M. A. Taylor of Bonham and Mrs. J. M. Crain of Claude, state vice presidents; and Mrs. C. T. Hunkapiller of Pampa, state chairman; and chairmen of the local conference committees: Mrs. Irby Carruth, Mrs. Alfred Bellah, Mrs. R. B. Davis, Mrs. H. A. Brown, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. Millard Word, Mrs. Felix Neff, Mrs. Ralph Harter, Mrs. R. E. Ball, Mrs. Andy Walsh, Mrs. J. B. Pope, Jr., Mrs. D. A. Nicholas, and Mrs. W. C. Black.

Pouring were: Mrs. C. W. Batchelder, Mrs. A. B. Brown, Mrs. W. E. Miller, Mrs. S. L. Ingham, Mrs. C. R. Burrow, Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mrs. A. W. Sternberg, and Mrs. Ray Campbell.

Assisting in serving were: Mrs. Travis Shaw, Mrs. H. W. Hartman, Mrs. W. L. Pearson, Mrs. C. W. Kleinschmidt, Mrs. S. H. Condon, Mrs. A. M. Meyer, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. L. Wirt, Mrs. T. H. Knighton, Mrs. Carl Scott and Mrs. R. A. Neblett, Mrs. Burt Newlin and Mrs. Clyde Warwick.

A tour of the museum was a part of the afternoon's entertainment.

The courtesy banquet of the Canyon Chamber of Commerce and the County Home Demonstration Clubs Wednesday night was one of the nicest affairs given during the three day meet.

The table decorations were of cacti, petrified wood and yucca with the hand painted scenes of the Palo Duro State Park on the program and menu folders. Mrs. Griggs of Amarillo, president, presided on this occasion.

Of equal interest were the two luncheons given for the delegates. Thursday the Goals Luncheon honored the Standards Division of the district work, with the Canyon High School colors of purple and white being used in the miniature basketball courts and football gridirons which decorated the tables.

On this occasion Mrs. M. W. McCloy of Pringle, district Standards chairman, was toastmistress. Friday the Health Luncheon was given with Mrs. J. R. McReynolds of Dumas, presiding.

The Summer Round-Up work was featured by a miniature round-up scene. This Round-Up idea was suggested to a national president when she visited in Texas and saw a typical round-up.

Miss Olga Buresh of Austin State Health Department, advisory nurse appeared on the program at this affair.

MISS MARGARET BENGE AND ERIC ALLISON MARRY

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Bengé and Eric Allison on March 6 in the home of Rev. C. C. Armstrong, pastor of the Methodist Church at Panhandle.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Bengé of Wynoka, Okla., and Mr. Allison is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Allison of Canyon.

Both of the young people are graduates of the Canyon High School and are ex-students of W. T.

The couple will make their home at Borger where Mr. Allison is employed with the Steel Construction Company.

MRS. ANDY WALSH REVIEWS SHORT STORIES

The Junior Woman's Club met Monday afternoon in its study of the Best Short Stories from the Southwest.

Mrs. Andy Walsh gave a very interesting review of some of the stories and a short skit of each author's life.

At the business meeting Mrs. W. E. Miller tendered her resignation as president of the club. The resignation was accepted and vice president, Mrs. Walsh, accepted the presidency, and Mrs. Harry Wood was elected as new vice president.

Winters.

ISABEL ROBINSON HOSTESS AT TEA

Last Thursday evening Miss Isabel Robinson had as tea guests, Misses Hattie M. Anderson, Marie Pronabarger, Katherine Orr, Charlene McClarty, Marian O'Brian and Lex Alexander. The guests spent a most delightful evening browsing through the large and interesting library of Miss Robinson. They also had much pleasure in inspecting a number of new books received just recently by Miss Anderson.

SEAM FINISHING IS DISCUSSED AT HIGHLAND

"Different materials require different seam finishes," said Miss Bass to the Highland Home Demonstration Club, which met at the home of Mrs. Carl Fuqua on Tuesday afternoon, March 19.

A very helpful talk and demonstration on seam finishes, pockets, button holes, and plackets was given by Miss Bass. Mrs. Joe Bedenk won first on bound buttonholes, each member of the club making one after the demonstration.

Refreshments of mince pie and coffee were served to Miss Bass and Mesdames E. C. Paxton, H. H. Elam, T. McDade, J. D. Anderson, J. Cage, guests and Mesdames H. Sweet, Clay Fuqua, W. McDade, Joe Bedenk, Tom Boling, R. J. Sharp, A. Griggs, H. Rogers, M. Burum, and Mrs. Carl Fuqua, hostess.

HOME ECONOMICS SENIORS HONORED WITH DINNER

Six senior home economics majors were honor guests at a dinner given by the Home Economics Club in the college dining room at 6:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, March 19.

Naturtums formed an attractive centerpiece for the tables which were formed in the form of an "H," and the club colors of gold and purple were carried out in the six course dinner. Cleo Heath and Betty Hicks gave toasts to the seniors and special guests, and responses were made by Irene Hurst and Mrs. Geraldine Green. Musical and reading selections were also included on the program.

Honored guests were Misses Maurita Taylor, Fannie Mae Rees, Mary Jane Williams, Irene Hurst, Mabel Jones, and Mrs. Smiley Lovelady. Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page, Mrs. Geraldine Green, Miss Orpa Dennis, Miss Marion Norrington, and Miss Elizabeth Cox were special guests.

MATRESSES MADE BY CLUBS AT MRS. E. J. BAUER'S

"A well beaten and a well cared for home-made mattress is as useful as a factory-made mattress," says Miss Sadie Kate Bass, in an all day meeting with members of different clubs present at the home of Mrs. E. J. Bauer, March 22nd.

Two mattresses were finished and the third was almost finished.

The following were present: Mrs. E. W. Schaeffer, Mrs. Elmer Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Sharpe, J. Leavitt and Abbie Leavitt, Mrs. Curtis Robinson, Mrs. L. F. Spiser, Mrs. C. W. Stigler of the State Department of Education. Superintendent K. E. Oberholzer of Lubbock and J. B. Rutland were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Moore.

RANDALL HALL LUNCHEON HONORED P. T. A.

Randall Hall girls were hostesses at a five-course luncheon Wednesday honoring the members of the district P. T. A.

The reception room was tastefully decorated with green potted plants and with candelabra which held white candles carrying out the green and white colors of the luncheon. At 12:30 the guests were escorted into the dining room by table hostesses.

White miniature school houses with green roofs and their campuses formed the centerpieces of the tables. Place cards further carried out the atmosphere of the occasion, the card of the hostess being a lovely girl representing the school teacher, and the card of the guests representing some boy or girl.

Music was furnished for the occasion by Misses Lilla Beth Burroughs, Virginia Hohlaus, and Mr. Oscar Croson.

JOHNSON 4-H GIRLS WORK ON SHEETS

A sheet three yards long and ninety inches wide, with a two-inch hem is necessary to cover the mattress properly, says Miss Sadie Kate Bass, county home demonstration agent, in a meeting with the Johnson 4-H Club girls, March 21st.

Members of the club basted the hems in their sheets at this meeting.

The following were present: Lula, Luella, and Ardelle Spiser, Evelyn, Elsie, Margie and Carrie Bauer, Mary and Margaret Szydoski, club sponsor, Mrs. E. J. Bauer and hostess, Dorothy Bauer.

MRS. RAY McREYNOLDS HAS LAS SENORAS NUEVAS CLUB

Yesterday afternoon members of the Las Senoras Nuevas Club met with Mrs. Ray McReynolds at her home north of Canyon.

TO ATTEND MEETING OF JUDGES AND COMMISSIONERS

Judge Burney Slack, Commissioners G. B. Heath and W. E. Bennett will leave today for Brownwood where they will attend the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners meeting.

Several bills are pending in the legislature which are of great importance to the counties of this section, and these will be discussed at the meeting.

Mrs. Earl Robbins had dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave McCurdy of Plainview, Sunday.

Miss Eula Smith visited home folks at Floydada Sunday.

CCC Companies to Be Filled Starting April 1st Period

A large number of new men are expected at the Palo Duro State Park next week with the opening of the new period of work. Congress authorizes the continuation of CCC work for the coming two years in the bill pending in congress which is expected to pass during this week.

Both companies at the Palo Duro State Park are short on the number of men at the present time.

It is rumored, but not confirmed that all CCC companies will be increased to 240 men with the beginning of the new period. Resignations during the three months period always leaves the companies short of men, and the new set up with an increased number to start the period is believed to guarantee better service during the periods.

Completion of four cabins at the cow camp, and completion of the dining room of the lodge are set up as the objectives for this period, and these will be realized.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stockhaus visited in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest F. Ferrell at Panhandle Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ferrell have purchased a drug store in Panhandle and moved there from White Deer about three weeks ago.

Warwick Tells of Newspaper Work in Classification Talk

Clyde W. Warwick made a classification talk at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. News was described by the speaker as a combination of the words North, East, West, South. Applying the field of news to the daily newspaper, it means all the world; to the weekly newspaper, the county or community of its circulation. In spite of the depression, which has cut revenues of newspapers, reader interest has been maintained, and folks still continue to read newspapers because they are interested in the events of the day or the week.

The radio has not entered the news field as a serious threat against the newspapers because people have not been trained to use their ears as they have their eyes.

Discussing the weekly newspaper, the speaker asked if the weekly has a mission, and if it is fulfilling its mission. He answered the question in the affirmative; that the weekly newspaper was the clearing house of community thought and community action; not so much the moulder of community opinion as it is the builder of community thought which leads into action; a record of community deeds, in which every citizen seeks to put forth his best.

Discussing advertising, the weekly newspaper was held up as the best medium, since it is a welcomed visitor in every home, and is read by all members of the family. National publicity was given a recent issue of the newsless News issued by the Canyon weekly, showing the vast amount of local news being printed by this weekly.

The weekly newspaper is a real business institution, conducted upon the merits of the publication, rather than relying upon charity as in the olden days.

Among the outstanding features of the Canyon News were listed: the large number of cuts of local business men; the large number of county reporters; the school page which has been published continuously for nine years; the best plant and building in the Southwest for the size of the town.

Irby Carruth and W. A. Warren were elected delegates to the Rotary International convention to be held in Mexico City in June. Visitors present Tuesday were: LeRoy White, Irving Tolzien, W. A. Chessire, of Amarillo; Tom Nabors of Plainview; Andy Walsh of Canyon.

Father of Local Man Dies Thursday at Lamesa

Edd Little was called to Lamesa Thursday by the sudden death of his father, J. S. Little, 82. Mr. Little had gone to his ranch to prepare for a barbecue and his body was found several hours after he had died.

The funeral services were held in Oklahoma City Saturday.

Surviving is the widow and seven children: Mrs. Jack Burgess of Amarillo; Otis Little of Amarillo; Edd Little of Canyon; J. T. Little of Lamesa; Mrs. Ralph H. Rice of Kansas City; Mrs. J. M. Asbury of Oklahoma City; Mrs. L. Z. Burleson of Lamesa.

Mr. Little was a prominent ranchman in West Texas since 1875, operating in various sections. Miss Patsy Van Dyke of Lubbock visited friends in Canyon Sunday.

Buffalo Football Squad Starts On Spring Training

Despite an air full of dust, candidates for the West Texas State Teachers College football team have been put through a rapid pace in their first week of spring training.

The Buffs are being given lessons in the fundamentals as Coaches Al Baggett and Bob Cox strive for perfection from the bottom.

Lettermen in training are: Clinton Meek, Wheeler, and John Lee, Amarillo, tackles; R. D. Wheeler, Silverton, and Captain-elect John Rankin, Miami, guards; and Frank Van Noy, Amarillo, R. M. Thompson, Dalhart, Vernon Johnson, Childress, and Ezell Champion, Memphis, backfield candidates.

Among last year's squadmen are: George Caviness, Causey, N. M., and Lawrence Clark, Turkey.

Nineteen members of last year's freshman team are on hand, the sophomore material being: James Baggett, Floydada; Francis Ellison, George Brasuel, Canyon; Oscar Hinger, Endee, N. M., and Craig Walling, Farwell, ends; Wyatt Watson, Endee, N. M., tackle; Alvis Kennedy, Joe Stribbling, and George Cain, Shamrock; Grover Dennis, Olton; Bennie Graham, Farwell, centers; Ray Cox, Vernon; Lynwood Dow, Littlefield; Jack Jennings, Tulla; Ed Miller, Vernon; Floyd Murry, Floydada; Tom Slack, Canyon, and H. D. Stewart, Lefors, backs.

ATTEND FEDERATION

Delegates from Canyon left Tuesday for Plainview to attend the annual convention of the Seventh District, Federation of Women's clubs. Those going as delegates were Mrs. J. A. Hill, Mrs. T. V. Reeves, Mrs. Clyde Warwick, Mrs. A. W. Sternberg and Mrs. W. E. Miller.

Other Canyon women expect to attend the program which will continue until Friday afternoon.

NO PROMISE

Canyon News: Canyon has the honor and privilege of entertaining several hundred visitors this week. Citizens of this city feel highly complimented that they have seen fit to come, and trust their stay will be of great benefit. There is no use extending an apology about the brand of weather which is likely to obtain when the visitors are here, since all of them are from the sandstorm region. The interest in the programs and social functions will be so great that should the fate of Nature plot against the pleasure of the gatherings, no one will mind these inconveniences at all. Visitors are cordially invited to return for future gatherings, and we will promise more pleasant weather.

State Press in Dallas News: You are too experienced in weather. Mr. Warwick, to make any forward promises in regard to it. The weather is frivolous and fractious by turns. It is or was presided over, according to our information from Greek and Roman sources, by two gods, who were the Huey Long of their time—Eolus and Jupiter Pluvius. Eolus had charge of the wind, Pluvius of the rain. They sometimes worked together, often in disagreement. They are believed to have been jealous of each other, one undoing the work of his competitor and making earthlings miserable. We don't believe the two gods here mentioned have anything to do with the weather these days. It seems to be on its own, and to be as capricious as a Queen with a sore eye. State Press once promised incoming delegates to an important convention in this town a balmy spring season with the lily bells and cockle shells and rebuffs all in rows—then came an Easter freeze, with hail, slush and Pittsburgh fog. Some of the delegates might have held S. P. responsible if they could have found him, but he took good care that they shouldn't know where he was. Editor Warwick of Canyon is more sagacious. He doesn't predict salubrity and tonal ozone. He prefers to give warning of what may be. Certainly the course of wisdom.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Ruby Murphy spent the week-end at Ralls with her mother. She was joined there by Miss Judy Belle Moses who has been visiting in Dallas. Miss Moses will return to Canyon next week.

Baggett Wishes Trees For The Buffalo Courts

Coach Al Baggett is asking for 500 trees to be used in beautification of Buffalo Courts. About 150 trees have been given to the project.

Mr. Baggett has started a nursery north of the Courts to take care of the trees until they are ready to be set out. The trees will be well cared for in the nursery until such a time that they may be permanently planted.

Work on the Courts and other projects were resumed Saturday after the shut down Thursday on account of the lack of funds. It is hoped that five more rooms will be completed for housing the men during the coming week or ten days.

An emergency appropriation has passed the state Senate calling for funds to buy materials to finish all work on Buffalo Courts and to repair the swimming pool in the administration building. The bill has not been acted upon in the House.

W. L. Pearson was a business caller in Plainview Tuesday.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 9

CANYON, TEXAS, MARCH 28, 1935.

NUMBER 28

Cactus Cal

Hi folks!
Ain't we had the dirt?
I heard somebody say that God hadn't forgot us in this country. He knowed we was too pore to travel, so we just sit in the rocking chair and watch the world go by.

Wasn't that rain swell elegant? Mariah, Israfil, and me may have something to eat yet.

Last Thursday afternoon, I walked into the Home Ec. kitchen and there was Lucille Crowley and Viola Dooley up to their ankles in making muddy water. Was I embarrassed! Then I happened to peep in later and the floor sure was clean. My! My!

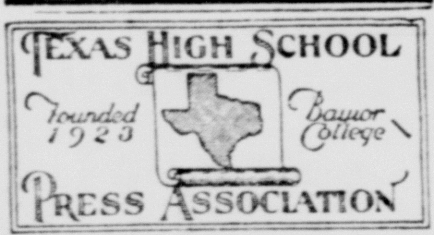

You kid's mamas and teachers shore ought to know how to raise and teach ya if half they heard at the P. T. A. Convention soaked in. I heard Chloe Hall ask Ruth McCreery if she was going to the home ec convention in plain view. Imagine Ruth wanting to hide!

I've often heard the way to a man's heart was through his stomach. Bill Cone, Pat Cox, Kenneth Cayton, Jack Taylor and O. M. Solomon got so busy eating down at the church that they missed the speech that they got out of school to hear. My, I'll bet they sure were disappointed.

Spring has come and Cupid is practicing archery again. Why Winnie Dee Hicks and Lawrence Fulton seemed to have got pricked with one of 'em.

Ho-hum, don't none of the rest of you get hit.

Cactus Cal.

THE SCHOOL LAWNS

"What good is this grass if we don't get to use it?" was the remark of a freshman after being severely reprimanded for dashing across the lawn, by a school official.

If every student got out and romped on the grass, there would not be much grass and Canyon High School could no longer boast a beautiful campus.

The janitors water and mow the lawns and care for the shrubbery. The students are not often careless about the lawn, and they show a great deal of consideration, but let's have one of the most beautiful schools in the Panhandle and to our part to preserve the grass.

SUCCESSFUL CO-OPERATION IN EXHIBIT AND PTA MEET

Now the Parent-Teachers Convention and the school exhibit are over. Public opinion and the spirit of co-operation through the entire convention and exhibit have proved its success.

Those deserving people responsible for the smoothness of the events, the interest of the spectators, and their enjoyment of the program certainly need praising. The people of the town showed outstanding co-operation in opening their homes to, and entertaining the delegates. The school and town certainly showed the right spirit in the undertaking.

It was one of the most beautiful examples of an entire community project—combining the efforts of the school with almost every club and institution of the town. It has been an opportunity to knit together the spirit of the town and community.

Jackie Moore broke his nose Monday afternoon while scrimmaging in football.

Grace McAfee of Amarillo visited with Mary May Harrison during the week-end.

Fay Plaster spent Friday afternoon in Amarillo.

STUDENTS HELP IN CONVENTION; HOLIDAY GIVEN

TEACHERS TAKE PART IN PROGRAMS; SCOUTS ESCORT SPEAKERS; STUDENTS ACT AS PAGES AND USHERS

Students and teachers of the Canyon Public Schools played numerous parts in the Parent-Teachers Convention held in the Methodist Church, March 20-21-22.

Mrs. Stella Murrell's second grade had its exhibit in the basement of the church, and the fourth grade, under the direction of Miss Annis Smith, presented a safety program, Thursday afternoon for Supt. I. B. Carruth, who was in charge of the program for the safety committee.

Those teachers taking part in the program were: Miss Irene Angel who gave a reading, Mrs. Lee Foster, musical selections, Mrs. J. D. Barker, Miss Gwendolyn Black, a piano duet, Miss Lois Goodrich, who, as a delegate, represented the Canyon High School faculty, and Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel, who assisted with the home economics girls at the serving of meals.

The Boy Scouts were active in escorting speakers and also had a part in the Wednesday night's program by giving the salute and repeating the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The Girl Scouts, directed by Miss Goodrich, escorted to the platform, Miss Margaret Chesmore, the guest speaker of the morning.

The following high school girls served as pages to carry messages, usher to seats, and do errands: Mary May Harrison, Irene Thompson, Edith Steen, Jean Slack, Fay Plaster, Marielle Oldham, Mable Schmitz, Mary Ella Davis, Ruby Foster, Winnie Dee Hicks, Jewel Chambers, and Mary Ella Lowe.

The boys serving as ushers were: Jack Oldham, Bill Cone, Wesley Cox, Jack Taylor, and Sewel Cox.

In order that the teachers of both the grade and high schools could attend the closing session of the Parent-Teachers' Association Convention, and the opening meetings of the Northwest Texas Conference for Education, the students were given a full holiday last Friday, March 22.

Intramural Cage Tournament For Girls Underway

The girls' intramural basketball tournament is now underway. The teams practiced two days each, and the tournament is being played by single elimination. The seniors have the largest squad, but the sophomores appear to have the strongest team.

The juniors and freshmen have good prospects. Red Watkins is an outstanding player at the position of guard and Sis Overton is an excellent hoopster.

Mary Horn and Glenna B. Eastwood are the mainstays in the Fresh team.

The seniors boast Edith Steen as forward and Irene Thompson as guard. The sophomores have two outstanding guards, Betty Ruth Solomon and Billy Greenfield. As forward, they have Carolyn Mayfield.

The seventh grade has two remarkable players, Renna Beth Bellah, and Annie Sue Rogers.

HOME EC. DEPARTMENT GETS NEW COOK STOVE

The Home Economics Department received a new modernistic Continental Cook Stove on March 19th.

It is white with a bluish-green design, and has a table top with four large burners. There is a light above the burners and also one in the oven which turns on when the oven door is opened, making it possible for one to see the food at any stage in its preparation.

Dorothy Marie Croslin and La Wayne Mitchell from Childress, spent the week-end with Helen Johnson.

Irene Thompson, Edith Steen, Laura Ferne Brian, '34, and Annie Kathryn Overton spent Saturday night with Mary May Harrison.

Miss Thelma Thorpe, former teacher in the grade school, now teaching in Pampa, was in Canyon over the week-end.

Virginia Jarrett, '30, now teaching in Vega, spent the week-end with her parents here.

Johnnie Plaster, '30, who is teaching in Alameda, spent the week-end in his home in Canyon.

Miss Ethelene Murrell, former teacher in Canyon High School, is now teaching in Pampa.

Studes And Parents Visit Annual Exhibits Of Work

Senior Ambitions Vary from Copyboy To Sarcasm Prof.

The seniors whom we have always with us were actually subdued one day. In this unusual fit they were overheard to muse on their exalted ambitions as to what the future (five years hence, that is) held for them:

Said that quiet-as-a-mouse Ruby Foster to whom it might concern, she saw herself obeying the copy-boy summons for the Happy Herald staff five years hence.

Jewel Chambers' greatest ambition is to be Prof. of Sarcasm at West Point.

Winnie Dee Hicks declares her ambition to be the first feminine Babe Ruth—and we believe her.

Lorene Bessire remarks sadly "Would that I might be a professional screamer in the movies five long summers hence."

Even the great god (of the ladies) Bill Cone "ambitionizes" five years hence he will be able to sleep till ten o'clock in the morning. But nobody believes him.

Eagles To Attend Invitation Meet At Hereford Saturday

After two weeks of practice, the Eagles' track team of this season shows good material and prospects of having a winning team. Eleven boys are reporting regularly for practice.

The team will journey to Hereford Saturday to attend an invitation meet sponsored by the Hereford High School.

Sewel Cox and Willard Childers are working on the shot put throw and are now throwing it about 40 feet. Wade Johnson and Edd Brooks are trying for the 440 yard dash; Wade is also throwing the javelin, and Brooks the broad jump. Curtis Ellison and Jack Middleton will run the 880 yard run. Hampton Lisle is trying for the running broad jump, 100 yard and 220 yard dashes. O. M. Solomon is going to represent the Purple and White by throwing the discus. Those that are working on the relay are: Wade Johnson, Edd Brooks, Curtis Ellison, Hampton Lisle, Cecil O'Donald, and Jack Middleton. Other members of the team are Prentiss McKee and Odell Miller.

MANUAL TRAINING II CLASS TO MAKE HOUSE TRAILER

The second year manual training boys have started on their first large project for the year. It is a "house on wheels" or rather a house trailer.

The plan for the house is to be seven feet wide and eleven feet long, having a small kitchenette and another small room for a bed and baggage. It is to have one door and six windows.

Virtually the remainder of the year will be spent on this project.

SENIORS ARE EXEMPT FROM FINAL EXAMS

At last the seniors are to be exempt from final exams! Those who have made a B average throughout the course will be exempt. Seniors with lower average will take the exams.

GUESS WHO

Clarence Eldred is the name. You'll know if you have heard. But it behooves us just the same. To guess this high school bird.

Answer to last week's "Guess Who"? . . . ? . . . ?

GEOMETRY

(With apologies to Joyce Kilmer) I think that I shall never see, A lesson hard as geometry.

A lesson of which I see no use, A test which always gets abuse.

A lesson that calls for work all day, And still your work is not okay.

A lesson that may in winter seem A nightmare to make your dream.

Upon whose bosom trials have lain, Who intimately lives with strain.

E's are made by fools like me, Through it only, God can see.

—Mary Ella Davis.

Rowena Lockwood spent Sunday in her home in Amarillo.

Lorna Cone visited in Dimmitt Friday.

The Canyon High School exhibit was held open house style March 19 in the high school building. Each class had a representation of the work which it had been doing.

The room which seemed to attract most attention was Coach Cleveland Jones' commercial art room. The project which probably was the most attractive was the paintings of houses and people. Another was designs made from the students last names or initials.

Home Economics
Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel's home economics classes made special projects representing the work they had done. One project gave the methods of fitting and cutting patterns, selecting appropriate clothes, and budgeting the clothing money. The other was in foods, canning, emergency meals, and table setting.

Manual Training
People showed interest in O. T. Barker's house-trailer which the second year manual training class is making. Furniture which was made by students included cedar chests, radio cabinets, smoking stands, and book stands.

The English IV classes taught by Miss Lois Goodrich exhibited their short stories and autobiographies.

Miss Irene Angel's English III class put the contracts on "The Tempest" out for inspection.

Journalism notebooks, several copies of "The Eagle's Tale," and parodies were among the projects of the journalism class.

The students in the typing classes made pictures of a dog's head, ships, flowers, a calendar, a silhouette of an old-fashioned lady, and several others on their typewriting machines. All of their exercises done this term were on the tables.

Treasure Island Model

Dolls dressed to represent characters in "Treasure Island," which the freshman English class has studied, were placed near a small log cabin in Miss Mattie Jordan's room. Considerable interest was shown in the miniature castle which represented a castle in the time of "Ivanhoe."

Curved and straight line figures made in geometry were of interest in Miss Grace Clark's room.

Science Projects

The science projects were: refining of oil, steps in making ink, the collection of stones, and manufacture of alcohol, films, and dyes. The mechanical drawing class taught by O. T. Barker exhibited all the drawings they have made this year.

Mrs. J. D. Barker's music I class had radio notebooks exhibited.

Miss Jewel Foster's exhibit was made up of history charts, English booklets, and various Spanish projects.

Grades Uses Unit System

Since this is the first year the grade school has used the unit plan system a great deal of interest was shown by the school patrons who attended the exhibit in the grade school building.

Have Assembly

A short assembly was held in the high school auditorium where Miss Elva Fronabarger explained to the parents the work of the unit plan. She also introduced Mrs. Stella Murrell, Miss Annis Smith, and Mrs. John Davis, who told the results of the new plan of study upon the grade school students.

Dairy Model

Probably the grade school's most complete room exhibit was that of Mrs. Murrell's second grade, which exhibited an excellent reconstruction of the Bourn Brothers' Dairy and the Farmers' Elevator.

The Dairy sat upon a grass mat which was mounted upon a large flat table. The construction consisted of a large dairy barn, feed shed, delco house, overhead and ground tanks, windmills, and fences.

The buildings were artistically lighted with midget light bulbs which illustrated the delco system of the dairy.

Near the small elevator was an equally small field of wheat which was irrigated by a well-built windmill also made by the students of this room. Beside the elevator was an illustrated exhibit of the use of wheat.

Mrs. Ola Beeson's second grade also rebuilt the Bourn's Dairy, but their reconstruction of the English Airport attracted more attention.

The first grade class sponsored by Mrs. T. W. Collins built a farm in the likeness of the G. W. Cox farm, and also built the business section of the town, showing the services that these firms rendered to their community. Their library, Mrs. Collins said, was especially helpful because the children who are just beginning to read must fill certain requirements before

ANNUAL STUNT NIGHT IS SET FOR APRIL 12

SCHOOL KING AND QUEEN TO BE CROWNED; WORK ON STUNTS UNDERWAY

The annual Stunt Night will be held Friday night, April 12.

This is the third annual Stunt Night to be held in Canyon High School. The Stunt Night plan was instituted here in the spring of 1933 to replace the annual carnival. A prize is offered for the best and second best stunts. Last year a variety of stunts was presented. The Pep Squad won first place with a musical revue stunt, and the Press Club won second place with a burlesque on "The Shooting of Dan McGrew."

At the close of the stunt program the queen of the high school is to be crowned with a fitting ceremony. Each class is to nominate a candidate and the candidate that receives the most votes will be crowned.

The Pep Squad has already been working on a stunt and other organizations are laying plans for their part on the program.

Deaths Affect Families of 13 C. H. S. Students

The students of the Canyon Public Schools have grieved the loss, last week, of several of their relatives.

Mrs. A. Cayton, the grandmother of Kenneth and Eugene Cayton, died last Sunday afternoon. Kenneth is a student of the high school, and Eugene is in the grade school.

Polly Little, of the high school, and Dawson, Edward, and Joe Billy Little of the grade school, grieved the death of their grandfather, Mr. J. S. Little of Lamesa. Mr. Little died last week.

Mrs. Jennie Barks, of Canyon, who died last week, is survived by several relatives in the Canyon Public Schools. Shirley Harrell, a great granddaughter; Roy, Jimmie, and Henry Campbell, great nephews; and Glenn Campbell a nephew.

The grandfather of Hampton Leslie Lisle, Mr. J. D. Brady of Amarillo, died last week after several days' illness.

Play Contest To Be In Amarillo Apr. 12

"Dregs," the Canyon High School one-act play will be entered in the Interscholastic League One-Act Play Contest to be held in Amarillo, Friday, April 12.

Two casts were chosen so that the members of each cast may have an alternate. Those chosen were Lorene Bessire, Mary May Harrison, Jack Taylor and Jack Oldham.

Even though only two of the above named members of the cast will be the two to act in Amarillo, all four will receive one-act play awards and will get to make the trip.

they are permitted to read in the library. This encourages scholarship.

The main project in Miss Frances Singleton's first grade room was the miniature reproduction of Mr. M. H. Rockwell's farm with its barn, windmill, cattle, and two-story house.

The third grade classes, taught by Misses Gladys McClanahan and Gwendolyn Black, had projects on the Eskimos, Indians, and Japanese, besides their charts and booklets.

Mrs. Davis's arithmetic classes illustrated some of their problems with pyramids, airplanes, a silo, and a wheat field.

Maps of Texas with all the counties drawn in and colored were outstanding in Mr. Milton Sanders' history room.

Miss Erin Gamble's sixth grade reading class made the most complete project in that room. It was a 6-room house furnished correctly.

Two projects in Miss Lenna Foster's English room were the graveyard of bad English and train and track compared to English with the switch as side tracks for bad English.

Miss Smith's fourth grade class seemed most interested in its Indian project. They had the Indian trading post, sand painting, and an Indian rug being woven in their own looms.

The other fourth grade class, sponsored by Mrs. Isabelle Cousins, seemed to center most interest around their transportation unit. Different models of aircraft and ships were displayed.

Home Economics Girls To Attend Rally At Plainview

Mary—Wanted In the Office

It was near the end of the last period. The sand was blowing; the students were tired and wished the bell would ring. Then the office girl peeped into the room, and said Mary Jones was wanted in the office.

Mary descended the stairs very slowly, hoping to put off the interview as long as possible. Her knees shook, the sand stormed, her heart pounded, and the stairs played leap-frog with each other. Through her mind passed a long guilty train of things she had done in her dark past. Had Mr. Carruth found out she played hockey Tuesday, or had Miss Clark reported her for eating candy in geometry class?

As she entered the office door, Mr. Carruth said, "Telephone, Mary."

These good boys of our school known as Curtis Ellison and Bud Meyers seem to have little or no sense at all some times. They like to box, kinda as a hobby or something, and the other day they boxed until when knocked down they would have to lie on the floor for some time in order to get strength enough to get back on foot. That is what I call over-doing a thing.

Well, I hope that this girls intramural basketball tournament goes off as well as the boys' did, and I imagine it will, and from what I hear it looks like the seniors will win the thing, but the dope bucket can always get upset in a thing of that kind.

These track boys sure have been working hard for the past two weeks, and we know that they will bring back the bacon from that Hereford invitation meet next Saturday.

Spring football must be going rather well 'cause I noticed one of the best players was all pooped out after practice the other day. That seems to be a good sign of real work. And by the way, they must be treating 'em rather rough out there 'cause the other day a guy came limping into the dressing room and asked Bud for a rub down; he had a Charlie Horse.

They even tell me that some of the boys even bring individual, or private water cans to the practice field; the rest of you boys don't take it up 'cause it might not work if everybody tried to do something like that.

BASKETBALL GIRLS HAVE PICTURES TAKEN, TUESDAY

The seven girls who lettered in basketball this year and their coach, Miss Annis Smith, went to Britain's Studio Tuesday noon to have their pictures made.

The squad had pictures made once this year, but they were not good, so the girls voted to have them taken over.

The girls wore their basketball uniforms and shoes. Those going were Mable Schmitz, this year's captain, Mary Collins, Evelyn Cluck, Arnetta Kirkpatrick, Mary Ella Davis, Thelma Bryant, and Jean Slack.

ENGLISH BOOKS CHOSEN FOR NEXT SCHOOL YEAR

Four new English books have been chosen for the next school term. They are "Widening Horizons," by Bolinius, for the eighth grade; "Romance, Literature in the Senior High School," by Briggs, for the ninth grade; "American Writers, Good Reading for High Schools," by Cross, for the tenth grades.

New Books for other courses will be announced later.

Ethel Ruth Collins, a graduate of '29, now teaching in Friona, spent the week-end in her home in Canyon.

Hershel Davis, former student of C. H. S., who now lives at Carlsbad, is visiting George Mayfield.

Dorothy Fay Rusk, now of Abertown, spent the week-end in Canyon.

Raymond Goodrich of Channing was the guest last week-end of Miss Lois Goodrich.

Bill Brian, '30, now of McLean, spent Sunday in his home in Canyon.

Anna May and Florence Cope-lin of Childress spent the week-end with Wilma Price.

Thirty-five home economics girls plan to attend the District Home Economics Meet at Plainview next Saturday.

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel and thirty-five girls are planning to make the trip, accompanied by the home economics girls of the Demonstration School. They will go in cars early Saturday morning in order to arrive in Plainview at nine o'clock.

Each year the Home Economics Club sends delegates to the state convention. This year the girls were unable to do this, so each girl is paying her own expenses to Plainview to attend the district rally.

Have Part on Program

The Canyon girls have several parts on the program. Marielle Oldham, president of the Canyon Home Economics Club will give the response to the welcome. They are also to give a play on the program. A stunt will be given by each town represented, and a prize will be given to the group with the winning stunt. The guests will be entertained with a luncheon and tea.

17 Schools Represented

The following towns will be represented: Canyon, Hereford, Friona, Bovina, Farwell, Happy, Tulia, Dimmitt, Spring Lake, Olton, Kress, Plainview, Silvertown, Muleshoe, Hale Center, Lockney and Floydada.

Typing Students Attend Contest

Miss Fannie Sue Brasuel will enter three typing students in the District Interscholastic League typing contest at Shamrock next Friday night. The students entering are Lorene Bessire, Jack Oldham, and Jewel Chambers.

These students are leading the typing classes in speed and accuracy. The highest scores made by these students are, Lorene Bessire 55 words per minute, Jack Oldham and Jewel Chambers, 53 words per minute.

The winners at Shamrock will enter the state contests at Austin.

Extracts From The Exchange

In "The Corral," a paragraph from an article on dust storms describes some of the "daze" in Canyon High School during dust storms:

"One boy swears that he went to a class and was in the room 15 minutes before he found out that he was in the wrong class. One teacher taught English half a period before she discovered that there was no one in the room."

From "The Round-Up" we learn what girls are made of; the female of the species contains:

Chlorine enough to sanitize 5 swimming pools.

Oxygen enough to fill 1,400 cubic feet.

Thirty teaspoons of salt, enough to season 25 chickens.

Ten gallons of water.

Five pounds of lime, enough to whitewash a chicken coop.

Thirty-one pounds of carbon.

Glycerine enough for the bursting charge of a heavy navy shell.

Enough glutin to make five pounds of glue.

Magnesium enough for ten flash light photos.

Fat enough for ten bars of soap.

Enough iron to make a six-penny nail.

Sulphur enough to rid a dog of fleas.

And, believe it or not, boys, only one-quarter of a pound of sugar.

Seewald Exhibit In Hudspeth Room Of P.-P. Museum

Nineteen of the most beautiful etchings and dry-points that have ever been displayed in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society Museum are now hanging on the walls of the Mary E. Hudspeth room.

The collection is the work of Miss Margaret Seewald, Amarillo artist, whose work is gaining renown and the attention of foremost art critics of the southwest.

Many of the etchings are portrayals of western life; tumble-down homesteads, ranch houses, cowboy hatted westerners, and plains covered with yucca. Spanish portraits are numerous; and there is a scene showing the life of Mexicans on the border. There are numerous pictures of Indian life which are splendid.

Some of the work of Miss Seewald is in color, reds, vermillion, and grey; however, most of them are in black and white.

Miss Isabel Robinson, head of the art department, says, "The collection is the finest of its kind ever to be displayed in the museum. Miss Seewald certainly displays excellent workmanship. She has beautiful line quality, and each etching or dry-point is very rich in tone, especially the colored one. We are fortunate in acquiring this display."

More Paint to the GALLON!

Sounds funny but you do get far more paint in a gallon of Lowe Brothers High Standard than you get in a gallon can of cheap paint. Because it covers more surface, because it lasts longer, because it cuts down painters' time on the job. Come in and get the facts before you do any painting. It will pay you.

Detailed Itinerary Of Tour Announced

The detailed itinerary for the 1935 Educational Tour has been announced by Professor Frank R. Phillips who is privately conducting the trip which will be made by many students and ex-students of West Texas State Teachers College. It will begin July 16 and will be ended approximately August 24.

Misses Fannie Mae Rees and Hilda Miller will accompany the tour to serve as aides to Mrs. Frank R. Phillips, dietician for the tour.

Following is the detailed account of the trip:

July 16—Leave Canyon, go to Raton, New Mexico.

July 17—Pueblo, Colorado, visit Iron Furnaces, study sugar beets, visit penitentiary at Canon City. Supper at Royal Gorge.

July 18—Manitou. Side trips to Pikes Peak, Cave of Winds, Garden of the Gods, and many scenic drives. Shows, pottery shops, and down town districts.

July 19—Denver. State Department of Education, schools, stock market, museums, and theaters.

July 20—Greeley Teachers College; Cheyenne, Wyoming, Capital, and cowboys' paradise. State Department of Education. Learn Wyoming teachers certificate requirements and salaries; camp at Casper.

July 21—Sunday—Rest.

July 22—Thermopolis. World's largest Mineral Hot Springs. The road south of Thermopolis follows the Wind River Canyon, Dude Ranches.

July 23—Greybull, Cody Museum, Shoshone Canyon. Enter Yellowstone National Park at Sylvan Pass. Visit its famous geysers, hot springs, bear feeding grounds, fishing.

July 24—Bridge. Yellowstone Lake, Yellowstone Falls, Grand Canyon, Cascade Lake, Mares Geyser, Old Faithful Geyser.

July 25—Madison Junction Basin, Fire Hole River, Moose Territory, Morning Glory Pool, Paint Rock, Mammoth Hot Springs, campfire entertainments, and the association with the bears.

July 26—Livingston. State A. & M. Boseman, Montana. Enroute to Helena, Montana, State Department of Education.

July 27—Visit State University, Missoula. En route to Wallace, Idaho. Pass the most scenic part of Rocky Mountains, gold and silver mining territory, Glidden Pass.

July 28—Sunday. Rest near Coeur D'Alene Lake.

July 29—Spokane, Washington, situated where Lewis and Clark Trail crosses the Spokane River, where Cascade of foam and spray may be seen in city's business district. City is surrounded by gold, silver, copper and lead mines.

July 30—Spokane, west through the famous apple country, crossing the Columbia River at Wenatchee, thence to Wenatchee State Park and pass the Jim Hill Mountains through the cascade tunnel, or by Snoqualmie into Seattle.

July 31—Arrive at Seattle, Washington.

August 1—Visit University of

On April 1, Nowadays, You Needn't Worry About a Thing—April Fool!

YOU can't fool all the people all the time, but quite a number of them can be made to look silly on the first day of April.

On that day dignified men shed much of their poise when they learn that signs pinned on their backs have been fairly begging someone to kick them.

A lesson on avarice is taught those who reach greedily for a purse lying in the gutter, only to see it jerked beyond their reach. From the sagest of persons the zoo will receive calls for Messrs. Lyon, Fox, Wolf, and Campbell. And the undertaker will refuse phoned orders for a "box" with the explanation that "this is not the Tivoli Theater."

In answer to the phoned question, "Is Boo there?" other suckers will answer "Boo who?" to hear the discomfiting reply, "Oh, well, forget it if you're going to cry about it."

Practical Jokers who make of April Fools' Day a Roman holiday, and their victims whose feelings are brutally sacrificed for the general good humor, will undoubtedly be interested to learn that the day of buffoonery furnished plenty of "belly laughs" for their distant ancestors.

IT'S just as hard to put the finger on the origin of April Fools' Day as on the elusive purse mentioned above.

History relates that the Romans ran off a Festival of Fools around the Ides of February. Typical entertainment of the day suggests their mode of observance. In all probability, flaming faggots thrown at the feet of bound and blindfolded victims; or Christians wandering plaintively about the Coliseum, pag-

The picture of Fan Dancer Sally Rand listening modestly to what the wild waves are saying is a real April Fooler, but the others aren't. Huey Long, bottom right, seems to be sharing the wealth, but the money, given Louisiana students to finance their trip to a football game, has practically all been returned to the Kingfish. Max Baer, top right, donned a diamond uniform for a change of pace during a Florida workout. And your eyes do not deceive you; that's really the itinerant Mrs. Roosevelt, left, sitting down knitting for a change.

In Scotland, tops in April Fool jokes has been to dispatch to a "gowk" or "cuckoo," as the victim was aptly described, an anonymous check for 100 pounds; to solder a shilling to a lamp post, or to invite a Scotchman to Sunday dinner and then go away for the week end.

Another tale has it that the Day of Drollery dates back to an ancient Hindu pagan festival, the Huli, when natives mixed stinkweed in the Rajah's hashish, ducked each other in the Ganges, and otherwise indulged in mad fun.

Though they were not in Rome the French emulated the Romans; their April Fools' Day, however, was termed "All Fish Day," and the dupe of a trick was called "un poisson d'avril," i. e., April fish.

In Scotland, tops in April Fool jokes has been to dispatch to a "gowk" or "cuckoo," as the victim was aptly described, an anonymous check for 100 pounds; to solder a shilling to a lamp post, or to invite a Scotchman to Sunday dinner and then go away for the week end.

But it is in America that Fool-tide observance has reached its most dandish heights, as many of us can testify. So, unless he has a flair for practical joking, or is that rare specimen of American who can relish a good joke on himself, the smart citizen stays home with a good book that day.

The Housing Committee of W. T. S. T. C. wishes to thank all the Canyon people who so graciously opened their homes to receive the delegates to the Educational Conference.

G. A. F. Parker of Hereford Died; Funeral Held Monday

G. A. F. Parker of Hereford died Sunday following a lingering illness. He was a pioneer business man of the Panhandle and held extensive interests in many sections of the Panhandle. At one time before there was an organized bank in Canyon, he was interested in the private bank conducted here by the Smith-Walker Company.

Mr. Parker numbered many friends among Canyon people. He was greatly interested in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society and attended its meetings regularly until three years ago.

Among Canyon citizens who attended the funeral Monday were: Dr. J. A. Hill, Mayor and Mrs. C. R. Burrow and daughter, Mrs. R. A. Neblett, and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Shirley.

Contour Lines

(Continued from first page) can increase the amount of rainfall that we use simply by preventing any runoff.

On fields that are subject to erosion, either by water or wind, terraces may be built on the level and a strip of sod or sorghum drilled on the terrace to form a wind-break or to hold against washing where slopes are steep enough to wash.

On land that is only slightly sloping the contour rows will do the job without any terraces. In this case there is scarcely any additional cost for a system that has the effect of increasing the available moisture and insuring against crop failure in dry years.

The first step in any permanent plan for wind erosion control should be the running of contour lines on all land in cultivation which is not absolutely level. Most land in Randall county has enough slope to lose from twenty percent to forty percent of the moisture from spring rains that fall in quick hard showers.

Many farms that are considered to be practically level by the owners actually slope as much as fifteen or twenty feet to the mile. This is enough fall to drain off a shower rather rapidly. If these sloping fields are contoured and worked on the level, all or nearly all, rainfall is retained on the land to penetrate the subsoil and build up a reserve of moisture.

It is expected that we will have one full time crew running contour lines in Randall county this coming week. The cost to the land owners for this work is very small. Other crews will be added later if there is enough land signed up to keep them busy. Farmers who want this work may sign applications at the County Agent's Office.

Two Ex-Buffs On All-American As Basketball Ends

Joe Fortenberry of Happy and Jack Colvin of Turkey were given berths on the All-American basketball teams with the close of the season at the A. A. U. meet in Denver. Both were formerly stars on the Buffalo squad and for the past two years have played with outstanding teams in the A. A. U. meet. Fortenberry was placed on the first team for All-American honors, while Colvin was given a place on the second team.

This is the fourth year that both have played in the national tournament, two years as members of the Buff team. Fortenberry is with the McPherson Refiners of Kansas, while Colvin is with the Hutchinson, Kansas Renos, the team which defeated the Buffs at Denver.

Colvin has another year of eligibility with the Buffs and has promised Coach Al Baggett to return next year. From Denver, Coach Baggett is highly pleased with the performance of his youngsters in spite of the lopsided defeat. Everything went well with the Buffs until the last five minutes of play when the Kansas team made 15 points, while the buffs could not hit the basket.

Educational Meet

The West Texas Band, under the direction of C. E. Strain, opened the program, playing a group of selections which were concluded with Alma Mater. After the invocation by the Reverend J. O. Quattlebaum, President C. H. Dillehay, superintendent of schools at Hereford, took charge of the program. Dean R. P. Jarrett of West Texas State Teachers College gave the welcome address. Following the welcome, Mrs. J. E. Griggs, president of the Eighth District Parent-Teachers Association, introduced the first speaker, Mrs. M. A. Taylor, state director of Education, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers, who had as her topic, "The Place of the Parent Teacher Association in Present Day Education."

Mrs. Taylor pointed out how the Parent-Teacher Association has taken its place among the great educational forces of the nation. After giving the aims of the association, Mrs. Taylor stated that "closer and closer must come the ties which bind teachers and parents together. We realize that in order to work together that the parent must be trained for his task as well as the teacher." Mrs. Taylor pointed out that the home, the school, and the church are the chief influencing factors in the child's life. "The test of the civilization of a nation is the treatment it gives its youth. Unless parents and teachers can get together, we are not going to succeed in giving these young people the things that they ought to have." Mrs. Taylor's speech was the link that joined the programs of the P. T. A. and the N. T. C. E. which convened here during the week-end.

Following Mrs. Taylor, Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State Teachers College, addressed the first session on the topic of "A New Teacher for the New Curriculum."

Dr. Hill pointed out that a new teacher who has adapted or is capable of adapting herself or himself to the new social order is a necessity in today's educational program. "The world is calling to-day a more magnified individual."

They'll Restore German Might

Germany's regular Reichswehr army of 100,000, a section of which is shown above, will be trebled as a result of Adolf Hitler's sensational announcement that universal military conscription would be resumed throughout the Fatherland, Versailles treaty to the contrary. At the head of the new, powerful Nazi army will be Gen. Werner von Blomberg, inset.

said Dr. Hill. "Educators are telling us that the curriculum must be one that is highly socialized. Schools have been too much of a thing apart from the social, industrial, and political life about us. The school and the teacher must become integrated in that social life. The teacher must give leadership in every form of social program. The teacher for the new curriculum must be the teacher who is well informed in public affairs."

"We do not need a quantitative social system such as we now have. We must put quality into the lives of the teachers of this country. That will require a much better educated teacher."

Other outstanding educators who had a place on the program were: Dr. T. D. Brooks, dean of A. & M. College; Dr. H. A. Scott, Rice Institute; Dr. E. U. Rugg, Colorado State Teachers College; State Superintendent L. A. Woods; Dr. Fred C. Ayer, University of Texas; Dr. Albert Barnett, Texas Tech.

Nearly every school in the Panhandle was dismissed Friday so that the teachers would be able to attend the conference. It was the largest gathering of teachers ever held in Texas outside of the annual meetings of the Texas State Teachers Association, and the speakers from other colleges were highly pleased at the great display of interest shown by the teachers of the Panhandle.

The Problem of Soil Erosion

The dust-laden haze which has traveled from the West and hung over many cities of the East this month, following a similar occurrence last May, has aroused people throughout the nation to the possible far-reaching effects of severe windstorms in the West. Greater interest is now being manifested in the problem of soil erosion than ever before, and the necessity of some kind of remedy for this extravagant loss of farming land is being more fully realized.

The Soil Erosion Service in the Department of the Interior points out the fact that the direct cost of erosion is at least 400 million dollars each year, with losses during the next 50 years reaching a possible 20 or 30 billion dollars unless something is done. This service is to be transferred to the Department of Agriculture, where it belongs.

Widespread Damage of Land
A nation-wide erosion survey has revealed that the area of formerly cultivated land which is largely ruined amounts to approximately 100 million acres—an area nearly equal to the combined size of Ohio, Illinois, Maryland and North Carolina, and which could support 625,000 farms of 160 acres each!

In the Panhandle of Texas alone, eight million acres of land have been seriously injured and in some cases essentially ruined for cultivation as a result of wind erosion. Additional large areas are threatened.

The immediate problem is to determine what can be done to stop further ravages of our nation's most valuable resource, its productive soil, and also what can be done to save land already injured.

Wind erosion is of comparatively recent origin. Before the natural protective covering of plains land was removed for the growing of crops, no such problem arose. But the exposure of the land and the lack of knowledge as to how to protect such land, together with drought periods which have aggravated the situation, have in many cases resulted in the loss of soil which required thousands of years to develop naturally.

Need of Enlarged Program
The Soil Erosion Service has done some preliminary work of great value with the resources at hand. The experiment station at Dalhart has been making an important first-hand study of our own section. Such work, however, should be expanded and made broader in scope, and I have therefore been urging that a sufficient allocation of funds be made available through the Administration's work relief measure to provide for a larger and more comprehensive program of soil erosion control.

H. H. Fennell, who is in charge of the soil erosion station at Dalhart, sums up the need for such a program. "The experiences of recent years," he says, "impress the fact that erosion by wind if prevention is neglected is capable of quick destruction of the usefulness of farm lands and must be resisted by every available control method. A prevention program with all phases practically co-ordinated to afford advance preparation against drought hazards is essential." In my judgment, the plan suggested by Mr. Fennell should be used.

I feel that provision should be
